United States of America (PRESS RELEASE) June 15, 2008 -- Access True Knowledge (ATK) welcomes the two Bowmans as new directors, strengthening the board to a total of six.

With an impressive background in Not-For-Profit, other organisations and international business consulting, they are a potent addition to ATK.

“We are delighted to accept these directorships. We have several philanthropical interests and ATK allows to work in and contribute to, an area where we would really like to see some change occur.”
